The Good Home.

The Good Home builds on Villawood’s long-running relationship with The Advertiser’s News Corp through Melbourne’s Good Friday Appeal Charity House Auction for The Royal Children’s Hospital – an annual project that has raised $11.5M over the past 15 years.

In similar fashion, The Good Home has been built by South Australia’s finest suppliers and most skilled tradespeople who have joined with Villawood, Weeks Homes and The Advertiser to deliver this valuable community contribution to help vulnerable children.

Funds raised by The Good Home auction will be shared by the following six major charities through the Advertiser Foundation Kids Appeal:
